

George Cesarini

Associate Advisor

gcesarini@techpargroup.com

George Cesarini has 20+ years of consulting experience in enterprise change, program management and strategic initiatives delivery; extensive project and relationship management experience. Able to drive results and influence people/events directly and indirectly: Extensive experience working with cross-functional, multi-cultural/multi-disciplined groups to deliver strategic initiatives across diverse channels, organizations and geographies. Able to distill, simplify, synthesize and present complex issues and plans.

George helps clients address complex business issues and carry out strategic transformation initiatives; responsible for planning, analyzing, managing, supporting and facilitating the implementation and carrying out the phases and steps necessary to concretize and deliver desired results and bring about effective change.

Extensive financial services, banking and equities market knowledge and experience with J.P. Morgan, ING, Swiss Bank Corporation, Dillon Read, Warburg, UBS, Paine Webber and others.