

Robert Grosberg

Associate Advisor

bgrosberg@techpargroup.com

Robert Grosberg is an experienced management professional and IT executive with over 30 years in the industry, dedicated to the effective support of business objectives and user requirements, with extensive experience in planning and managing information systems activities and resources. His experience includes worldwide support, corporate restructuring, system development and implementation, project evaluation, acquisition analysis, budget management, project and staff management, data center consolidation, vendor negotiations, hardware and software upgrades, and effective communication with an emphasis in all core corporate and financial systems, and specializing in the legal, accounting, insurance, financial services, real estate, entertainment, and utilities industries.

Robert most recently served as the Chief Information Officer for J.H. Cohn, LLP. His previous assignments included Chief Information Officer at White & Case, LLP, Chief Operations and Information officer at Mont D'Or, Chief Information Officer at Sills Cummis, Systems Vice President at American International Group, Inc., Chief Information Officer at Chase Automotive Finance, Systems Vice President at Olympia & York Companies (U.S.A.) and Systems Vice President at the Coca Cola Company's Entertainment Business Sector.=