

Celia S. Kapsomera
celia.kapsomera@wharton.upenn.edu
 Tel: (973) 393-4103

Finance – Planning – Risk Management – Strategy Specialist

Ms. Kapsomera is a Senior Finance, Planning and Risk Management Executive dedicated to internal and external client service and satisfaction in the Financial Services and the Academic Community. Celia is a Master courses Lecturer in the Enterprise Risk Management Program at Columbia University, specializing in Strategic Risk Management. Highly effective in:

- Risk Management
- Financial Planning
- Financial and Business Analysis
- Analytical Skills
- Business Transformation
- Governance, Risk, Compliance
- Strategy and Planning
- Project Management
- Problem Solving
- Business Case Studies Writing
- Due Diligence
- SOX implementation
- Communication Skills

HIGHLIGHTED CAREER ACHIEVEMENTS

- Implementation of a risk management framework and annual assessment process agreed to by the Board of Directors. This contributed to positive state examiners and external auditors' reports and supported the risk due diligence of the acquiring company.
- Management of large or pervasive risk events through presentation of risk maps assessing the largest and most probable risks and their level of mitigation.
- Auditing plan to evaluate and document material workflows and operational controls of three entities. Recommended improvements on identified deficiencies resulted in a shorter cycle of billing, processing and collecting retrocessions.
- Strategic planning case studies development at the Dept. of Management of the Wharton School.

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY

JOA Capital Partners	2019 – Present
Columbia University	2017 – Present
IFG Companies	2015 – 2016
AXA Liabilities Managers	2014 – 2015
GLOBAL Reinsurance Corp. of America	2005 – 2014
XL Global Services	2003 – 2004
Gerling Global Reinsurance Corp. of America	1999 – 2003
Swiss Re America	1997 – 1999
Standard & Poor's	1995 – 1997
Continental Insurance	1990 – 1995